

PETER

THE DISCIPLE MAKER

Daily Devotions and Small Group Discussion Questions | Week Four

This Week's Memory Verse

..to keep in your pocket, memorize, and hide in your heart:

Since therefore Christ suffered in the flesh,
arm yourselves with the same way of thinking,
for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh
no longer for human passions but for the will of God.

- 1 Peter 4:1-2 (ESV)

Week Four | Small Group Discussion Questions

The following small group discussion questions are based on North Way's weekly teaching within the series, "Peter, The Disciple Maker." If you or your small group didn't have a chance to watch the sermon, please visit www.northway.org or North Way's app to access the video message and watch prior to or during your small group gathering.

Spend a few minutes reviewing the primary points from this week's teaching. What stood out to you the most? Were there things you didn't understand? What challenged you personally?

Read 1 Peter 3:13 - 1 Peter 4:6. Discuss what you see and hear.

Has there been a time in your own walk with the Lord, where you have followed obediently through a time of suffering, and experienced blessing? Describe the blessing.

Has there been a time in your life when you've felt like Jesus is all you had, and felt your faith strengthened in knowing he was all you needed?

Does fear hold you back from being obedient to God? In the end, is it a fear of suffering that holds you back? What if it's true that suffering for obedience really leads to blessing?

Think of some of your heroes in the Christian faith. What was their suffering like? What kind of legacy did they leave for the Kingdom?

What comes to mind when you think about Christ's attitude toward the suffering he faced in his life?

If you are not experiencing personal persecution for your faith in action, are there ways in which you feel called to walk with others in their suffering?

As a group, how can you put your faith in action together in response to this week's message?
