"He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches." (Revelation 3:22, ESV)

¹⁴ "And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write: 'The words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of God's creation.

¹⁵ "I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were either cold or hot! ¹⁶ So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth. ¹⁷ For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. ¹⁸ I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, so that you may see. ¹⁹ Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent. ²⁰ Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. ²¹ The one who conquers, I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²² He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'" (Revelation 3:14-22, ESV)

Revelation 3:20

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me,

Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with them, and they with me.

Small Group or Personal Reflection Questions:

1. How did the Laodicean church interpret their trappings of success as blessings from God? In what ways might we do the same thing?
2. During the message, Dr. Platt discussed the word “theology.” How would you define it and explain its significance?
3. To what extent are the problems of the church at Laodicea (regrettably) a perfect parallel to the contemporary church in the 21st century?
4. How to you is Revelation 3:20 an eloquent and pointed description of the way Jesus first came to you?
5. What are the implications of the Letter to the Church at Laodicea for our personal walk with God? Where might God be challenging us as a part of that body?
