Small Group or Personal Reflection Questions:

1. Share with the group some of your experiences when you have managed to find a place, quiet yourself, and attempt to meet with God.
2. Take some time and share potential places for you to meet with the "Good Shepherd."
 - Daily, weekly, retreat, yearly...?
3. Of the three "exchanges" that Scott encouraged us to consider (listed on flip side), which will you struggle with most? Why? How can you help one another overcome this?
4. We should take "tools" with us to our place. What might you consider mentally, emotionally, spiritually, or physically to bring to your place?
5. Read John 10: 1- 18. List some of the promises from God you find in these verses. Of these promises which do you most need assurance of in this season?
6. Think about the one request, answer, or concern that you most need to hear from God about now. How have you been bringing it to Him? Now that we have discussed the "Place" next week we will look at the "Plea;" how do we bring our concerns and questions to God? Don't miss it!

Today's Message: Closer—The Place

So Jesus again said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly. ¹¹I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. ¹²He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. ¹³He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. ¹⁴I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, ¹⁵just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. (John 10:7-15, ESV)

I AM THE DOOR

“Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.” (Revelation 3:20, ESV)

I AM THE GOOD SHEPHERD
