<sup>9</sup>As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he rose and followed him. <sup>10</sup>And as Jesus reclined at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Jesus and his disciples. <sup>11</sup>And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>12</sup>But when he heard it, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. (Matthew 9:9-12, ESV)

And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. And all who believed were together and had all things in common. (Acts 2:42-44, ESV)

Everyone needs a nurse and a medic more than a judge or a critic.

What to listen for and speak to during family dinners:

1. Priorities (the toy)

Little children, keep yourselves from idols. (1 John 5:21, ESV)

2. Identity (the mirror)

The fear of man lays a snare, but whoever trusts in the Lord is safe. (Proverbs 29:25, ESV)

3. Connectedness (the keys)

Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm. (Proverbs 13:20, ESV)

We all need outside perspective when facing these 3 questions we begin asking as kids and continue asking the rest of our lives.

So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were ready to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become very dear to us. (1 Thessalonians 2:8, ESV)

Give your guests – family or church family – a front row seat to God's redemption story in your life.
