

Today's Message: "Temptation"

No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. (1 Corinthians 10:13,ESV)

The Core Idea: "The most common 'takeaway' from this verse is that 'God will not give you more than you can handle.' This is inaccurate. A true story from the early days of North Way

- I. What does the context teach us about this premise?
  - A. The first 12 verses of this chapter are complicated
  - B. Here is one tool for anyone to use to help discern context.
    1. Most were defeated by temptation
    2. The same thing could happen to us
    3. Pay attention to Old Testament warning signs
    4. Forget about self confidence. We need God confidence.
    5. He will always be there to help you through it!
  - C. From Paul Himself
We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about the troubles we experienced in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired of life itself. (2 Corinthians 1:8)
- II. What is God doing when He seems to be silent?
  - A. There's something more important to the Lord than giving us the answers to what we feel we need or want. There is purpose in our trials and temptations.

Out of Context: Part 2

Pastor Jay Passavant

July 30 & 31, 2016

Today's Message: "Temptation"

No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. (1 Corinthians 10:13,ESV)

The Core Idea: "The most common 'takeaway' from this verse is that 'God will not give you more than you can handle.' This is inaccurate. A true story from the early days of North Way

- I. What does the context teach us about this premise?
  - A. The first 12 verses of this chapter are complicated
  - B. Here is one tool for anyone to use to help discern context.
    1. Most were defeated by temptation
    2. The same thing could happen to us
    3. Pay attention to Old Testament warning signs
    4. Forget about self confidence. We need God confidence.
    5. He will always be there to help you through it!
  - C. From Paul Himself
We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about the troubles we experienced in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired of life itself. (2 Corinthians 1:8)
- II. What is God doing when He seems to be silent?
  - A. There's something more important to the Lord than giving us the answers to what we feel we need or want. There is purpose in our trials and temptations.

Out of Context: Part 2

Pastor Jay Passavant

July 30 & 31, 2016

- B. Let us see how Jesus responded to an urgent call for help.
John 11:1-44
1. Jesus intentionally waited
  2. Jesus was glad that He was not there while Lazarus was sick.
  3. Something greater, more valuable than healing can take place.
  4. They were about to be given new grounds for believing.

- C. The pre-eminent way we bring glory to God is by trusting in Him when we have nothing!
In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. <sup>7</sup> These have come so that your faith--of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire--may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. (I Peter 1:6-7, NIV)

Application: The difference between leaning into God in times of temptation, trial and testing and running away from Him is almost always community.

*Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
(Galatians 6:2, ESV)*

- B. Let us see how Jesus responded to an urgent call for help.
John 11:1-44
1. Jesus intentionally waited
  2. Jesus was glad that He was not there while Lazarus was sick.
  3. Something greater, more valuable than healing can take place.
  4. They were about to be given new grounds for believing.

- C. The pre-eminent way we bring glory to God is by trusting in Him when we have nothing!
In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. <sup>7</sup> These have come so that your faith--of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire--may be proved genuine and may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. (I Peter 1:6-7, NIV)

Application: The difference between leaning into God in times of temptation, trial and testing and running away from Him is almost always community.

*Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
(Galatians 6:2, ESV)*

Small Group or Personal Reflection Questions:

1. Have you ever heard the statement, "God won't give you more than you can handle?" In what sorts of context have you heard this stated?
2. Discuss the content of I Corinthians 10:13. What does it teach and what does it not?
3. What do you think Paul would have said to those who maintain that God will never give you more than you can handle?
4. Taking into account the circumstances in which this statement is typically made, what would you conclude to be a more accurate means of offering empathy to an individual experiencing trials and tribulations?

Small Group or Personal Reflection Questions:

1. Have you ever heard the statement, "God won't give you more than you can handle?" In what sorts of context have you heard this stated?
2. Discuss the content of I Corinthians 10:13. What does it teach and what does it not?
3. What do you think Paul would have said to those who maintain that God will never give you more than you can handle?
4. Taking into account the circumstances in which this statement is typically made, what would you conclude to be a more accurate means of offering empathy to an individual experiencing trials and tribulations?