

Today's Message: "Out of Context – Part 3"

The Big Three of Bible Interpretation:

1. Know the Context
2. Interpret Scripture with Scripture
3. Apply it to your life

The Bible does not say:
Money is the root of all evil.

The Bible says:

For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. (1 Timothy 6:10 ESV)

How do you know if you love money?

*Whoever loves money never has enough;
Whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with their income.
(Ecclesiastes 5:10 NIV)*

² These are the things you are to teach and insist on. ³ If anyone teaches otherwise and does not agree to the sound instruction of our Lord Jesus Christ and to godly teaching, ⁴ they are conceited and understand nothing. They have an unhealthy interest in controversies and quarrels about words that result in envy, strife, malicious talk, evil suspicions ⁵ and constant friction between people of corrupt mind, who have been robbed of the truth and who think that godliness is a means to financial gain. ⁶ But godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷ For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. ⁸ But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. ⁹ Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰ For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. (1 Timothy 6:2-10, NIV)

*"There is nothing wrong with men possessing riches.
The wrong comes when riches possess men."*

- Billy Graham

But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth. (Deuteronomy 8:18, NIV)

¹⁷ Command those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant nor to put their hope in wealth, which is so uncertain, but to put their hope in God, who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment.

¹⁸ Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. ¹⁹ In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life. (1 Timothy 6:17-19, NIV)
