

Today's Message: "Mark—The Disciples"

⁷ And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. ⁸ He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff, no bread, no bag, no money in their belts ⁹ but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. ¹⁰ And he said to them, "Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you depart from there. ¹¹ And if any place will not receive you and they will not listen to you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." ¹² So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent. ¹³ And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.

³⁰ The apostles returned to Jesus and told him all that they had done and taught. ³¹ And he said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a desolate place and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. ³² And they went away in the boat to a desolate place by themselves. ³³ Now many saw them going and recognized them... "The way we break these down is not nearly important as intentionally identifying various domains and making disciples who will bring Jesus' character and ways to bear within them."

“Many Christ-followers today miss the invitation to be sent with authority into their neighborhoods, workplaces, and schools because they don’t believe they’re ‘ready.’ And yet, Jesus is saying, ‘Go as my ambassadors with my authority.’”

In response to being sent, my step of faith today is to ...

Journey alongside the religious leaders, the crowds, and the disciples as they hear from Jesus by subscribing to daily devotionals, reading plans of both the Gospel of Mark and the New Testament, as well as discussion questions for your small group to use throughout each of the Mark series.
