The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, "This month shall be for you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household. And if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbor shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats, and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs at twilight. (Exodus 12:1-6, ESV)

"Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! ... The next day again John was standing with two of his disciples, and he looked at Jesus as he walked by and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" (John 1:29, 35, ESV)

It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour, while the sun's light failed. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Then Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last. (Luke 23:44-46, ESV)

Small Group or Personal Reflection Questions:

Where do you fall on the spectrum of celebrating your birthday? Do you downplay it, or do you go big?

Read Exodus 12:1-6, 21-28

- What truths about God are revealed in the original Passover event and remembered in the yearly feast?
- How have you seen these same truths about God in your own life?

Read John 1:29-34 and 1 Corinthians 5:6-8

- In what ways is Christ “our Passover Lamb”?
- How do we, according to these passages and in general, commemorate and honor Jesus’ sacrifice?
